Code Seminar Sponsors

Roger Tuttle extended a special thank you to the following organizations and individuals for their most generous financial support and sponsorship of the EIA Code Seminar.

- Telus - Shaun Hollingsworth
- CSA - Kerry Peterson
- ECA of BC - Richard Campbell
- BCEA - Barbette Cejalvo

BC Electrical Code

Axel Gringmuth advised the meeting that the BC amendment to Rule 26-700 that required the practice of pigtailing at receptacle outlets had not been recommended for adoption with the new Code. Axel expressed his concerns regarding the deletion of this amendment and urged anyone else with similar concerns to contact the BC Safety Authority.

Life Membership

Roger moved that Elio Fata, a former Inspector with the City of Burnaby be accepted for Life Membership in the EIA. The motion was seconded by Ted Simmons. Carried.

Adjournment

There being no further new business, Roger Tuttle adjourned the meeting at 19:30 hours. The meeting was followed by the annual Christmas gift draw with Santa Jack and his two able helpers Len and Eric.

A 50/50 draw was also conducted by Paul Stevens. The proceeds of the draw were donated to Canuck Place. John Evans, an inspector for the City of Vancouver won the draw and generously donated his winnings to Canuck Place. Jack Ball advised the meeting that the EIA would match John's $216.00 donation to Canuck Place. A good time was had by all!
