

Electrical Inspector's Association of British Columbia
General Meeting of November 30, 2009
Held at Cheers Restaurant
125 E. 2nd St., North Vancouver, B.C.

Opening Presentation

To the pleasure of everyone, the evening began with a wonderful drum and bugle performance by the Royal Canadian Sea Cadets Captain Vancouver. Petty Officers, First Class, A. Rubini and M. Ho played the drums with Petty Officer, First Class, K. Leung playing the bugle.

Farmand Ghafari expressed special appreciation to the Cadets for their excellent performance. A donation of $250.00 was made by Mauro Rubini to the Sea Cadet Band on behalf of the EIA.

CALL TO ORDER

Farmand Ghafari called the meeting to order at 19:20 hours. Farmand welcomed everyone and extended best wishes for the Season. Attending members and guests then introduced themselves.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

George Razzo reported that we currently have 71 members renewed for 2009, 13 members renewed for 2010, and 9 members for 2011. George also noted that we have 39 Life Members.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Eric Sipila reported that our current bank balance was $5451.31.

Paul Stevens moved that the Treasurer's report be accepted. The motion was seconded by Rick Porcina. Carried.

Next Meeting

Farmand Ghafari advised the meeting that in order to avoid conflicts with the Olympics, the next EIA General meeting would be held on February 8, 2010. Farmand also pointed out that the meeting would be held at the Fireman's Club located at 6515 Bonsor Street in Burnaby.

Adjournment

There being no further new business. Farmand Ghafari adjourned the meeting at 19:30 hours. The meeting was followed by the annual Christmas prize draw with gifts distributed by Santa's #1 helper, Len Rhodes. A 50/50 draw was also conducted for the Canuck Place Children's Hospice Fund. Several guests donated directly to the fund, bringing the total donation to Canuck Place to $340.00. Jack Marsh was the lucky winner of the 50/50 draw.

A good time was had by all.
